

Name/Company's name	Catalog number (to be filled in by R.A.N.D. MUZIK)
Street, number, zip code, place
Duplication Approval Regarding rights for mechanical duplication, copy rights, author's rights, other rights
Principal has ordered contractor to produce mechanical duplicator).	duplicates by a pressing plant (mechanical
This duplication approval is effective for the present but a duction orders made between principal and contractor enattached to every production order. The duplication approval to the date of the first production order. It is also effective contracting parties agree to only accept orders for which	ven if it is not referred to in every case and oval is also effective with retroactive effect ve if titles are not listed separately as both
Principal declares to own full rights for duplicating, e.g. right to use defined film, sound and other recordings and ses are paid to the respective authority and that the press (mechanical duplicator) is not liable for these matters.	warrants that all costs for copy right relea-
Principal and contractor agree bindingly in a contract for to § 328 BGB and for the benefit of the pressing plant (me sates the pressing plant regarding these rights and espectialms of copy right authorities or respective organizations fees that can incur with a claimed or actual violation of the	chanical duplicator) that principal compen- ially for all claims of third parties including s as well as possible costs for legal and court

Signature, Company's stamp

Date